Zinc of Ireland calls for halt as it examines drill core

Zinc of Ireland NL (ASX:ZMI) has been granted a trading halt by the ASX, pending details of drilling results.

Earlier in the month the company intersected massive sulphides at its wholly-owned Kildare Zinc Project in Ireland.

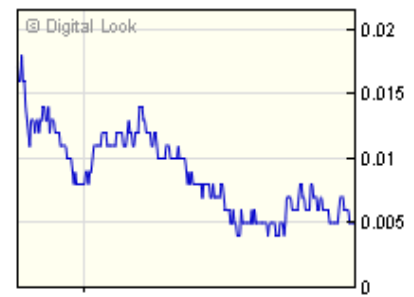

Assays are expected from the first four holes, with another two underway.

The halt will remain in place until the opening of trade on Monday 16th October 2017, or earlier if an announcement is made to the market.
