MGC Pharmaceuticals appoints Roby Zomer as CEO

MGC Pharmaceuticals (ASX:MXC) founders were key figures in the Israeli medical cannabis industry.

Roby Zomer is one of these founders, and he has now been promoted to chief executive officer.

Zomer has a proven track record of international success within the biotech and agritech sectors.

Key tasks for Zomer will include being responsible for global operations.

The company recently signed a binding Memorandum of Understanding with the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology.

The agreement is to collaborate on a research initiative to determine and develop the ideal strains of medicinal cannabis in Australia for the treatment of many diseases and conditions.
