Pacific American Coal share spike attracts ASX speeding ticket

Pacific American Coal Ltd's (ASX:PAK) shares have been on a tear, rising to a high of 6 cents today from a close of 3.9 cents on Thursday, prompting the ASX to issue a speeding ticket.

Responding to the ASX price and volume query, the company said that there was no information that had not been announced to the market.

Pacific American revealed on 28 March 2018 the cash sale of its South Hazell Exploration Project for C$1 million.

The company held total cash of $4.7 million as at 14 April 2018.

Significantly, Pacific American is fully funded to undertake and complete its planned 2018 exploration program at its 100% owned Elko Coking Coal Project in Canada.
