Brookside Energy makes strong progress in transitioning to operator in SCOOP Play

Brookside Energy Ltd (ASX:BRK) is making strong progress in its transition to operator in the SWISH Area of Interest (AOI) withing its SCOOP (South Central Oklahoma oil province) play in the world-class Anadarko Basin of the US.

In the March quarter, the company delivered a 6,000-acre operated position in the SCOOP play Woodford-Sycamore trend with its SWISH AOI leasing campaign and is set to secure operations in the first seven high-grade development units within the AOI, with surface location rights for an initial well already acquired.

Ongoing efforts within the SWISH AOI have now delivered operations and majority interest in the company's first high-grade development unit, the Jewell unit.

"We continue to build momentum"

Brookside Energy managing director David Prentice said: "We are very pleased to present the company's activities and cashflow report for the first quarter of calendar 2019.

"We continue to build on the momentum we gathered in 2018 and it is particularly pleasing to report on the great progress we are making as we transition to an operator in our SWISH AOI in the Scoop Play.

"The strong cash contribution from the Bullard well this quarter and the emergence of the pipeline of low-risk development or infill wells that are
