Symphony Environmental (LON:SYM) 6p £8.87m

FY Dec 18 results from the global specialist in products and technologies that "make plastic smarter".

Group revenues increased by 6.5% to £8.80m

d2p revenues increased by 191% to £0.93m

d2w revenues were broadly stable at £7.67m

Gross profit increased by 2.8% to £4.13m

Adjusted EBITDA, before R&D, and planned increased marketing, communications and brand costs of £1.18 m

Reported PBT fell to £0.04m

"We believe the Group is reaching a pivotal point in its development. In particular, our Middle East market is increasing the number of products which must be made with our d2w type of oxo-biodegradable plastic technology, whilst at the same time substantially improving their enforcement process. We are confident that this will translate into materially higher sales of d2w going forward."

Oxford Metrics (LON:OMG) 85p £103.8m

"The international software company servicing government, life sciences, entertainment and engineering markets announced that Vicon, a world leader in motion measurement, has agreed a strategic partnership with Sandbox VR targeting the fast-growing Location-based Virtual Reality ('LBVR') market.

Sandbox VR is a market leader in LBVR with a total of seven active locations. Their latest and most ambitious experience, Amber Sky 2088, will be powered by Vicon Evoke, part of Vicon's unique LBVR offering - Vicon Origin. As part of the partnership, Sandbox has initially purchased a total of five systems from Vicon. Two of these will be used at Sandbox's existing locations in Hong Kong, upgrading their current solution. As Sandbox continues to expand into new locations there is significant opportunity to scale the partnership over time."
