Kin Mining receiving assays, on track for updated resource estimate in September

Andrew Munckton, newly appointed managing director of Kin Mining NL (ASX:KIN), speaks to Proactive Investors about the emerging gold production company's wholly-owned Leonora Gold Project, located in the highly prospective North-Eastern Goldfields region of Western Australia.

Kin has suspended construction at the Cardinia process plant site, as it works to develop utilities and infrastructure in the area, and simultaneously grow its resources. An updated resource estimate is on track to be announced to the market in September.
