Trans Pacific Energy Group 'extremely well-received' by potential investors In New York, says CEO

Trans Pacific Energy Group Ltd CEO Arthur Darivas tells Proactive Investors the Western Australia-based junior-exploration company looking for battery metals has been meeting with investors in New York this week.

Darivas says the company, which is not yet listed on an exchange, is meeting with investors who he says are interested in the balance the company is offering, specifically the mix of nickel, copper, cobalt, and hard rock lithium.

The company plans to meet with investors in London and in Frankfurt next week.
