Legend Mining defines two new base metals targets at Rockford South

Legend Mining Ltd (ASX:LEG) managing director Mark Wilson updates Proactive Investors on two new base metals targets identified within its Rockford Project in WA's Fraser Range.

The targets have been named Crean and Worsley, in line with Legend's naming conventions that tie in with historic exploration legends.

Wilson says the nickel-copper-cobalt prospective Crean target is similar to Nova, Silver Knight and Area D, while Worsley was a copper-zinc-gold VMS-style prospect.
