Corazon Mining identifies priority geophysical targets at Mt Gilmore

Corazon Mining Ltd (ASX:CZN) managing director Brett Smith tells Proactive Investors about multiple large geophysical targets that have been identified in an ongoing IP geophysical survey at Mt Gilmore Cobalt-Copper-Gold Sulphide Project in NSW.

Testing is now being done on the large anomalies in a bid to find characteristics typical of concealed cobalt-copper-gold sulphide bodies.

The managing director said the IP survey had been extremely encouraging so far, and was expected to be completed by the end of July.

Corazon is preparing work program applications for drilling approvals.
