Peninsula Energy set to go with low ph initiative for Lance Projects

Peninsula Energy Ltd (ASX:PEN) managing director Wayne Heili updates Proactive Investors on receiving the final regulatory approval for advancement of the company's low ph uranium initiative for the Lance Projects in Wyoming, USA.

Heili says the two primary approvals required are now in place, and it is time to start implementing the process.

The MD also responds to US President Trump's recent Section 232 determination on US uranium imports, and how the decision impacts Peninsula Energy.
