Azumah Resources progresses towards developing Wa Gold Project in Ghana

Azumah Resources Ltd(ASX: AZM) managing director Stephen Stone updates Proactive Investors on the company's progress towards developing its Wa project gold asset in the West African country of Ghana.

The plans are advancing following the recent release of a scoping study that indicated underground mining at the Bepkong deposit would be profitable.

The scoping study will feed into a feasibility study, which is scheduled to be completed by the end of 2019.
