Minotaur Exploration reveals high-grade copper shoots at Jericho JV

Minotaur Exploration Limited (ASX:MEP) managing director Andrew Woskett updates Proactive Investors on the company's Jericho JV (OZ Minerals 80%, Minotaur 20%) copper discovery southeast of Cloncurry, northwest Queensland.

Early intercepts show encouraging results, with thick and high copper-gold grades.

The managing director said the team had so far defined three shallow, high-grade shoots in the two lodes and was confident that more would show up as drilling extended along the strike.
