Full interview: Northern Minerals in strategic discussions with government agencies in Washington

Northern Minerals Ltd (ASX:NTU) CEO George Bauk tells Proactive the Australia-based dysprosium mining company will be talking to government agencies in Washington next week to determine how the company can be a supplier to the United States.

Currently, China is the world's most dominant producer of rare earths element dysprosium. Bauk says these talks will potentially give the company a platform to accelerate the company's development plans. Following this, Bauk will be meeting with potential investors in New York.
