MaxCyte to make five presentations before the year-end on groundbreaking CARMA system

MaxCyte Inc (LON:MXCT) said it is taking part in five industry conferences at which it will showcase its CARMA technology.

The platform can rapidly produce cell therapies taking one day where traditional methods might take one to two weeks.

It is used by some of the world's largest drug companies, and CARMA is at the heart of around 70 clinical and pre-clinical programmes.

MaxCyte also used the system to develop its lead drug candidate, MCY-M11, which is currently in phase I trials with people suffering advanced ovarian cancer and peritoneal mesothelioma.
