SenSen Networks appoints senior finance professional as acting chief financial officer

SenSen Networks Ltd (ASX:SNS) has appointed senior finance professional Jon Cook as acting chief financial officer, replacing Tony Lynch.

A commercially astute and strategically focused executive, Cook has more than 20 years' experience in diverse industries, nine years of which have been spent working internationally.

He has a depth of corporate and commercial experience in several geographic regions including USA, Europe, Asia and Australia.

Lynch departs SenSen on very good terms.

Strong finance function established

Since 2017, he has been instrumental in building a strong finance function within the company and advising the SenSen board on complex accounting standard changes as the company has grown.

SenSen CEO Subhash Challa said: "I would sincerely like to thank Tony for his professionalism, effort and hard work.

"He has made a significant contribution to SenSen's transition into an exciting ASX-listed public company and the SenSen team will miss him. We wish him well for his next endeavour."

"Will add considerable value"

Challa said: "I am also delighted to welcome Jon Cook to the executive team and I have no doubt he will add considerable value to the company as we rapidly expand our global footprint.

"I very much look forward to the strong contribution Jon will make in the CFO role."

Depth of experience

Beginning his corporate career with KPMG, Cook gained multi-faceted global experience in audit, advisory, consulting, M&A and private business services roles across the globe for more than a decade.

Subsequent positions included senior finance director, CFO and operational roles with CSR Limited, Dakota Capital and Palisade Investment Partners, with his most recent position being the Asia Pacific finance director for James Hardie Industries.
