Full interview: Great Boulder Resources three rights - location, commodities and expertise - key for progress

Great Boulder Resources Ltd (ASX:GBR) managing director Andrew Paterson talks with Proactive about its assets in the Eastern Goldfields of Western Australia and why the company should be watched during 2020.

He says GBR is in the right locations near Kalgoorlie and in the Yamarna Belt, has the right commodities with gold and nickel both having strong market fundamentals and the right expertise with a technical team supported by expert consultants.

Paterson also outlines where GBR is at with its work at Whiteheads Gold Project in golden ground just north of Kalgoorlie and its nickel sulphide projects in the Yamarna Belt.

He states: "With an enterprise value of less than $3 million, we think that with the potential of our projects, we make a very good investment proposition."
