Coinsilium appoints new communications advisor as it prepares to unveil new strategy

Coinsilium Group Limited (AQSE:COIN) has said the strategic business review ahead of its relaunch as a blockchain, open finance and crypto finance venture operator is almost complete.

Details of the new strategy, operating model and strategic partnerships will be announced to the market this quarter, it added, together with the renewed corporate branding and website relaunch.

Coinsilium added that Wachsman has also been appointed as the strategy and communications advisor to the company in respect of the relaunch and ongoing market strategy.

In a statement, David Wachsman, Wachsman's chief executive, said: "The global digital asset industry is primed for tremendous growth, and we believe Coinsilium is well-positioned to capitalize on its impending adoption through the introduction of new and exciting innovations."
